

Portrait Investment

All portrait sessions take place out of doors; I have several regular locations but am open to suggestions. Please look at my work and note the style of portraiture and editing and know that I am happy to discuss your personal expectations and anticipations. I serve the greater Boston and South Shore areas and will travel for an appropriate fee based on distance.

A simple portrait session fee is $300, with a sliding upward scale for the addition of horses, dogs (or whatever creature you wish!) and additional participants. A *nonrefundable $100 deposit is due at the time of booking your session. Session times/dates are approximately one hour and limited, based on availability and season.

I suggest considering your own style and wardrobe as well as doing online research to determine the sort of results you are hoping to achieve during the shoot so that we can discuss details beforehand. Clothing changes are encouraged and should be planned to fit into the session timeframe. Sessions will be relaxed and easy, so that everyone enjoys the process. This is your investment and I would like for you to be thrilled with the results.

Included in the session package are two high quality, non-watermarked, fully edited digital files of your choice, three watermarked, lower resolution digital images for sharing on social media, and a private online gallery of up to thirty high resolution, fully edited images to purchase a la carte. You have the option to purchase all digital files in your gallery as a package for a $75 fee. Watermarks are removed from all purchased prints and digital downloads

The private online gallery allows you to make selections from your home or on the go with no pressure or time constraints. You may order traditional, high quality prints from your gallery, as well as a variety of other items. Please ask if you are looking for a product you don't see offered – many times it can be added to the price list. I also take special commissions for metal, wood or acrylic prints, and many other specialty art offerings.
